The Sigma Tau Delta 2008 Annual Convention invites you to celebrate contradiction in a city that is something of a paradox itself. Perched between the North and the South, between the French king from whom it gets its name and its American rebel founder, the city seems to appeal to everyone. The downtown is, from afar, dominated by a skyline that virtually disappears once you’re on the streets, surrounded by fountains and sculptures. The city hosts the most famous American version of the sport of kings at a park called Churchill Downs. Bourbon vies for menu space with the fine wine lists. Good clean Southern living meets horse racing and rare spirits. Louisville not only makes the juxtapositions work, it convinces visitors that the contradictions are, well, necessary.

You won’t have to imbibe to find Louisville intoxicating. Nor will you have to wander far from our convention hotel, the Louisville Downtown Marriott, to find Louisville. From dining to specialty galleries, the Fourth Street Live! entertainment district to serene river scenery, bowling alleys to English pubs, interactive museums to quiet city parks—Louisville offers us a feast of contradictions to explore this coming March.

For more information about things to do in Louisville, visit the Louisville Convention and Visitors Bureau website at www.gotolouisville.com.

Common Reader
The Secrets of a Fire King, Kim Edwards
Kim Edwards’ first collection of stories, The Secrets of a Fire King, has been selected as the 2007–2008 common reader. The goals of the common reader are to celebrate the works of our featured speakers, to provide a common text for our own reading and enjoyment, and to establish a focus for chapter activities fostering literacy and the pleasures of reading in our local communities. Sigma Tau Delta is offering $150 for the best convention presentation (in any genre) featuring the common reader.

Hotel
All official convention activities will take place in the Louisville Marriott Downtown at 280 W. Jefferson Street. The Marriott is one of the city’s newest hotels, ideally situated in downtown Louisville, near the Fourth Street Live! entertainment district and the historic Main Street district.

Room Rates
Sigma Tau Delta has reserved a block of rooms for the convention at a special group rate. The room rate is $110 per night for single/double/triple/quadruple (excluding taxes).

Reservation Deadline
The special group rate is available until February 5th, 2008. Important note — there is only a limited number of rooms available at the group rate and this block of rooms may fill before the February 5th deadline. Please make your reservations early. If you have difficulties making your reservations, email sigmatd@niu.edu.

Reservations
To reserve a room, call 1-800-533-0127 and ask for the Sigma Tau Delta group discount.

Leadership Workshop
Learn from ΣΤΔ’s most successful chapters! The Student Representatives and Student Advisors are sponsoring Necessary Contradictions: Serving to Lead on Thursday morning, March 6. The workshop features two breakout sessions:

Session 1: Fundraising Publishing a Literary Journal Small and New Chapter Development Integrating Technology: Getting your Chapter Online

Session 2: Fundraising Publishing a Literary Journal Large and Growing Chapter Development Alumni Epsilon Chapter: Making the Most of Membership

Chapter Sponsors’ Workshop
New, improved, and back by popular demand! Discuss the issues that sponsors face in fostering chapter involvement, recruiting new members, developing chapter leaders, and much more. Due to the growth and popularity of this event in previous years, this workshop for chapter sponsors will take on a new format this year. Sponsors will now have the option of attending specialized breakout sessions depending on their chapter’s needs. The workshop will be led by some of Sigma Tau Delta’s most successful chapter sponsors. Not to be missed!

ΣΤΔ Book Drive
The Student Leadership Committee has selected the Portland Neighborhood House, as the focus of the National Book Drive project. The Portland neighborhood is located in one of Louisville’s most disadvantaged areas, and the Neighborhood House has expressed a need for books appropriate for middle-school-aged children. All Sigma Tau Delta and Sigma Kappa Delta chapters are encouraged to bring books to the Annual Convention and to make a lasting impact on this city. A $100 donation will also be given in the name of the chapter that makes the most substantial contribution.

Call for Papers and Panels deadline is November 14, 2007
Paradoxical or contradictory moments reveal great truths about the universe and our place in it, or they may instead provide simple comic relief. Whatever their intent or result, pinning them down, teasing them apart until they unfold like an origami swan, does something special for us as readers. Contradictions require us to acknowledge the multitudes ... and our own substantiality.

Students and active alumni are invited to submit original short fiction, poetry, and personal and analytical essays focusing on or relating to the convention theme, Necessary Contradictions, or any subject of interest to the English discipline. Students, faculty, and active alumni may also consider proposing panel presentations.

Check the convention website at www.english.org frequently for updates.

Tentative schedule with list of presenters should be posted on the website by the middle of January.