

Application for Alumni Representative

To represent the voice of the alumni members of Sigma Tau Delta (i.e., members who are no longer students), the Board of Directors has created the Alumni Representative position. The Alumni Representative is elected by Alumni Epsilon members during the alumni caucus at the annual international convention in the spring (www.englishconvention.org). All candidates must have been Alumni Epsilon members for one year prior to election. Please bring this application to the alumni caucus.

Duties of Alumni Representative (AR)

The Alumni Representative (AR) promotes Alumni Epsilon membership, produces a quarterly online newsletter and contributes an article to each national newsletter, promotes community among alumni including welcoming new Alumni Epsilon members and encouraging alumni to continue to participate in local chapters, communicates with the Chair of the Alumni/International Committee on a monthly basis, represents the concerns of alumni to the Board, and submits an annual report to the Board. Complete position duties are ~~found~~ at <http://english.org/sigmatd/leadership/>.
